THE BIGGEST LITTLE THEATRE IN GRAND ISLAND

Arsenic and Old Lace

October 7-9 and 14-16, 2011

The play is a farcical, dark comedy revolving around Mortimer Brewster, a drama critic who must deal with his crazy, homicidal family and local police in Brooklyn, New York, all while he debates whether to go through with a recent promise to marry the woman he loves. His family includes two spinster aunts who have taken to murdering lonely old men by poisoning them with a glass of home-made elderberry wine laced with arsenic, strychnine, and "just a pinch" of cyanide; a brother who believes he is Teddy Roosevelt and a murderous brother who has received plastic surgery. This comedy is to "die" for.

The Best Christmas Pageant Ever

December 7-11, 2011

Adapted from the Barbara Robinson book of the same name, this hilarious and heartwarming tale follows the notorious Herdman children and their attempt to perform in their Sunday school's Christmas play. Other church members aren't excited about the casting decisions since the kids only recently began attending church for the snacks and are, to say the least, unfamiliar with the source material. Despite the controversy, the unruly Herdman children are exposed to the Christmas story for the first time and the audience is presented with their honest and "unique" interpretation of it.

Guys and Dolls

February 10-12 & 17-19, 2012

All the hot gamblers are in town, and they're depending on Nathan Detroit to set up this week's incarnation of "The Oldest Established Permanent Floating Crap Game in New York." The only problem is, he needs $1000 to get the place. Throw in Sarah Brown, who's short on sinners at the mission she runs; Sky Masterson, who accepts Nathan's $1000 bet that he can't get Sarah Brown to go with him to Havana; Miss Adelaide, who wants Nathan to marry her; Police Lieutenant Brannigan, who always seems to appear at the wrong time; and the music/lyrics of Frank Loesser, and you've got quite a musical.

Nickel and Dimed

April 13-15 & 20-22, 2012

Nickel and Dimed reveals low-wage America in all its tenacity, anxiety, and surprising generosity—a land of Big Boxes, fast food, and a thousand desperate stratagems for survival. Instantly acclaimed for its insight, humor, and passion, this dramedy is changing the way America perceives its working poor.

A message from our Executive Director

When we're preparing for a season, there's no shortage of ideas. We have lots of talented and dedicated people with BIG ideas. But it's the small things that make our theatre run smoothly. Volunteers offer hundreds of hours each year to wash and sew costumes, sell advertising, stock and set up concessions, read plays, organize and repair set pieces, write grants, plan events, design ads, update mailing lists, sell tickets, memorize lines, and the list goes on and on.

We simply wouldn't exist without volunteers. None of the directors or actors are paid—they are volunteers! That's why we need you. Your extra contribution beyond the season ticket price allows us to offer more...and better, BIGGER entertainment for our community.

Please consider extending your season membership by becoming a Friend, Patron, Benefactor or Guardian. You can make a BIG difference for the biggest Little Theatre in Grand Island!

Thank you for your patronage,

Glenda Kahler
Executive Director

Friend $150-249 Includes 2 season tickets.

In the ever-evolving landscape of communications, it's difficult to inform people about our shows without the help of advertising. Your extra contribution will help us attract more people to our productions.

Patron $250-349 Includes 3 season tickets.

Education is at the core of our mission and your extra contribution makes educational programs, like Missoula Children's Theatre, and GILT scholarships possible.

Benefactor $350-499 Includes 4 season tickets.

Daily operations and the maintenance of our facility require us to be diligent, yet frugal with the addition of new systems and better organizational tools. Your contribution helps us stay current and relevant.

Guardian $500+ Includes 5 season tickets.

It's our goal to bring more performing arts productions and a broader selection of arts entertainment to our community, but this takes money and your gift could help make it happen.

We're happy to host your group event
